

EASE Framework for Difficult Conversations & Resolving Conflict

E

Engage: Start the conversation by engaging the other person in a respectful and open manner.

A

Acknowledge: Actively listen and acknowledge the other person's feelings and perspectives.

S

Solve: Collaborate to find a clear, fair solution.

E

End: Close the discussion with actionable next steps and set goals and a plan to follow up.

When the discussion ends:

- Document the conversation
- Set future actions and touchpoints
- Follow-up